

CONTENT PROTECTION OPERATOR

The Rights Alliance is looking for a Content Protection Operator to monitor online platforms for illegal content and counterfeit goods. This role will play a central part in our efforts to protect creative industries from illegal copying. Your responsibilities will include identifying and reporting violations and ensuring that illegal content or counterfeit products are removed. You will work independently but with ongoing support and guidance from your supervisor.

Your tasks:

- Monitor social media and e-commerce platforms (e.g., Facebook, TikTok, Amazon).
- Identify illegal content such as movies, TV and sports broadcasts, as well as counterfeit goods like furniture and lamps.
- Use platform-specific tools to submit complaints and takedown requests.
- Verify that reported content is removed.
- Analyze trends in online violations and contribute to strategies for improved content protection.

Who are you?

- ✓ You are detail-oriented and have a keen ability to spot illegal content.
- ✓ You are well-organized and able to manage large amounts of information.
- ✓ You have experience with or are eager to work with content and brand protection, as well as reporting tools on online platforms.
- ✓ You work systematically and adhere closely to internal guidelines.
- ✓ You have an interest in copyright and trademark protection.
- ✓ You are proficient in English, both spoken and written.

No specific educational background is required for the position, but we prioritize finding a colleague who wants to be a long-term part of our team.

What we offer:

- A crucial role in combating illegal online content.
- The opportunity to work in an international environment and develop skills in digital rights protection.
- Flexible working conditions.
- A friendly and ambitious workplace based on Vesterbrogade in Copenhagen.

The position is 30 hours per week, but working hours can be negotiated with the right candidate.

We conduct interviews on an ongoing basis and will hire as soon as we find the right candidate, so send your application as soon as possible.

Send your application, CV, and any supporting documents in a single PDF to Ditte.Agerskov@rettighedsalliancen.dk.
